You will not be admitted to the FLO if you are carrying a weapon (per RCW 9.41.300) or you are under the influence of drugs/alcohol. You will be asked to leave the FLO if you exhibit behavior that is disruptive or threatening to the participants or facilitator.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED:

Every effort will be made to ensure participants can attend as requested. Same-day attendance is possible, however, orientation sessions are filled on a first-come, first-serve basis, so early registration is encouraged. You will not be scheduled for the same seminar as the other party.

If your registration form is not completely filled out, including payment and verification of income, it will delay your registration. No registration will be accepted online or over the phone. You will receive confirmation of the FLO date, time and location by mail or email advising which session you are to attend.

FLO schedules are available at the King County Clerk's office, Family Court Services offices (Room W280 in Seattle, Room 1D MRJC), by calling the FLO coordinator at (206) 296-9323 or online at:
